The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather on this Fourth Sunday of Easter, we are reminded of the profound love and care that the Good Shepherd has for each one of us. In today's Gospel reading from John, Jesus proclaims Himself as the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for His sheep.

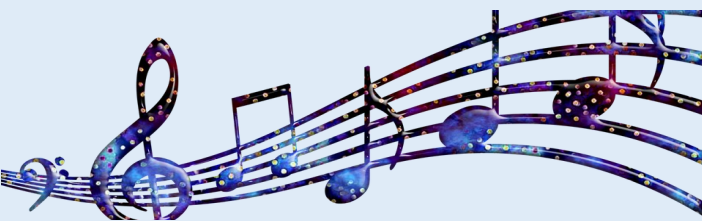

Jesus uses the imagery of a shepherd to illustrate the depth of His love and commitment to us, His flock. Unlike a hired hand who may flee in the face of danger, the Good Shepherd willingly sacrifices Himself for the sake of His sheep. This selfless act of love exemplifies the essence of Jesus' mission on earth – to offer Himself as a ransom for many, to bring salvation and eternal life to all who believe in Him.

As we reflect on this passage, we are invited to contemplate the profound significance of Jesus' sacrificial love in our lives. Just as a shepherd knows each of his sheep by name and is willing to protect them at all costs, Jesus knows us intimately and desires to guide and protect us on our journey of faith.

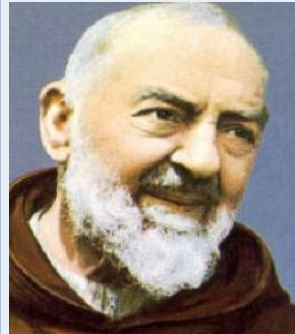

In a world marked by uncertainty and turmoil, the Good Shepherd offers us reassurance and hope. His love is unwavering, His mercy boundless, and His grace abundant. No matter how lost or broken we may feel, we can take comfort in knowing that the Good Shepherd never abandons His sheep.

As we continue our journey through the Easter season, let us open our hearts to the Good Shepherd's loving embrace. May we listen attentively to His voice, follow His guidance, and trust in His unfailing love. And may we, like Jesus, strive to love one another with the same selfless and sacrificial love that He has shown us.

4th Sunday of Easter
Good Shepherd Sunday

Our Good Shepherd

This Sunday is called Good Shepherd Sunday because in the Gospel reading Jesus tells His friends that He is the Good Shepherd who loves His sheep.

When sheep are out grazing in open fields, the shepherd watches them and protects them from hurting themselves, getting lost, or being killed by wild animals. Jesus looks after us like a shepherd looks after his sheep. He gave us the Church so we could know what is good for us, and He protects us from being ruined by the devil by giving us grace in the sacraments.

Now, Jesus did something that an ordinary shepherd would not do. Besides guiding and protecting us, He died to save us! Because He died for our sins, all of His sheep can now go to Heaven where they will be happy forever! How blessed we are to have such a loving Shepherd!

JESUS said: "I am the GOOD Shepherd. A good shepherd LAYS down his life for the sheep. A HIRED MAN, who is not a shepherd, and whose sheep are NOT his own, SEES a WOLF coming and LEAVES the sheep and RUNS away, and the wolf CATCHES them and SCATTERS them. This is because he WORKS for PAY and has no CONCERN for the SHEEP. I am the Good SHEPHERD, and I know mine and MINE know me, just as the FATHER knows me and I KNOW the Father; and I will lay down my LIFE for the sheep.
