FIRST READING:

The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. (Acts 10:45-46)

PSALM:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. (Ps 98) Or: Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. (1 Jn 4:8)

GOSPEL:

“No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.” (Jn 15:13)

We encourage everyone to view the 2024 ACA Video online at www.CFBQ.org/ACAVideo.

Your contributions to the Annual Catholic Appeal make a significant impact, aiding individuals in Brooklyn and Queens in ways beyond the capacity of any single parish.

Let us pray for the success of the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal, envisioning a triumph that not only empowers us to extend love to those in need but also enables our hearts to respond to Jesus, who calls us to be in Communion, Participation, and Mission.

We invite you to stand with St. Pancras in supporting the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal.

The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Parishioners,

On this 6th Sunday of Easter, we are reminded of the profound love that Christ has for each one of us. In the Gospel according to John, Jesus speaks to his disciples about the importance of abiding in his love and keeping his commandments.

Jesus begins by saying, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love." This statement reveals the depth and the source of the love that Jesus offers us. It is not a fleeting or conditional love, but rather a love that mirrors the love between the Father and the Son—a love that is eternal and unconditional.

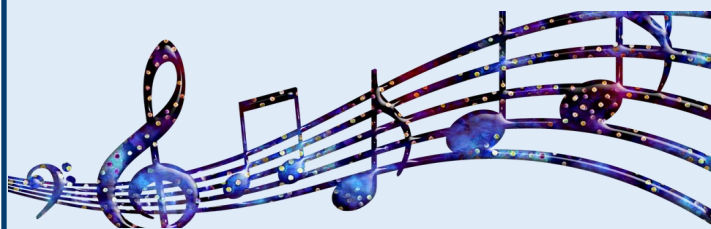

To abide in Christ's love means more than just acknowledging it; it requires an active response on our part. Jesus tells us, "If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love." Keeping Christ's commandments is not a burden, but rather a way for us to show our love for him and to remain in communion with him.

One of the central commandments that Jesus gives us is to love one another. He says, "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

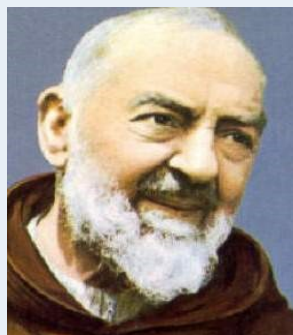

This commandment is not just a suggestion or a recommendation; it is the very essence of what it means to follow Christ. Our love for one another should reflect the sacrificial and selfless love that Jesus demonstrated for us on the cross.

As we reflect on these words of Jesus, let us ask ourselves: How am I abiding in Christ's love? Am I keeping his commandments, especially the commandment to love one another? In our daily lives, let us strive to abide more fully in Christ's love, so that we may bear much fruit and glorify our Heavenly Father.

Love One Another

Jesus wants us to love each other just like God the Father loves us. Can you think of some ways to show you love the people around you?

1. What can you do to show you love your parents?
2. How can you be loving to your brothers and sisters?

3. What can you do for your grand-parents to show you love them?
4. How do you show your friends you love them?
5. What can you do to love someone that doesn't like you?

When someone is loving toward you, think of how that person is being like God the Father and try to be like them!

Love One Another Word Find

Find the words in CAPITALS from today's Gospel reading in the puzzle. Use the left-over letters to fill in the blanks.

As the FATHER has loved me, so have I loved you; REMAIN in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be COMPLETE. "This is my COMMANDMENT, that you love one another as I have loved you. GREATER love has no man than this, that a man lay DOWN his LIFE for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No LONGER do I call you SLAVES, for the slave does NOT KNOW what his MASTER is DOING; but I have CALLED you FRIENDS, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I CHOSE you and appointed you that you should go and bear FRUIT and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ASK the Father in my NAME, he may GIVE it to you. This I command you, to love one ANOTHER.

No one has greater love than this:

for one's friends.
